

SJR 10 - Master Study Resolution
Technology Industry Related Items

135. Government Data Development - to study the development of key data that will help legislative and executive branch agencies better address the growth of the technology industry.

148. Corporate Accountability - to study requiring a person that receives certain tax incentives or other financial incentives to prepare an annual public report containing the amount of financial benefit the person receives (S.B. 57).

159. State and Corporate Income Tax - to study the corporate income tax allocation formula, state income tax, and collection procedures.

183. Aerospace and Aviation Development Zone - to study instrument and other requirements for an airport to qualify as an Aerospace and Aviation Development Zone (S.B. 74).

184. Capital Gains Exemption for Economic Development - to study implementing a state capital gains exemption for investors to create investment incentive to support technology companies in the state.

186. Increasing Flow of Federal Grants to Utah - to study implementing a comprehensive plan for developing higher levels of federal grant money flowing to Utah business.